

Jobs4Medical.co.uk launches new section dedicated to Medical Sales vacancies

- Pharmaceutical and Healthcare Sales professionals to benefit from a specialised section
- Developed to facilitate competitive demand within Medical Sales

Hampshire, UK – August, 2007 – Jobs4Medical.co.uk, a leading specialist online recruitment service for the medical profession, has launched a new section designed to fill positions specifically within the Medical Sales sector. For the first time a wide range of medical organisations and sales recruitment agencies will be able to advertise pharmaceutical and healthcare sales vacancies on the industry's leading on-line recruitment service.

The Jobs4Medical site has an average of 100,000 unique visitors each month and already advertises thousands of vacancies including doctors, carers, nurses, dental and allied healthcare professionals. The new recruitment section will cover sales positions for pharmaceutical products, as well as medical devices and technologies. Medical Sales is a competitive industry and salaries can reach the equivalent to that of healthcare professionals, including dentists and pharmacists. The numerous opportunities for career progression also makes Medical Sales a rewarding career.

Vicky Scott, Operations Manager at Jobs4Medical.co.uk said: "Plenty of recruitment agencies deal with sales vacancies, but through client feedback we noticed that there was a need for a specialist section dedicated to Medical Sales. This is because Medical Sales representatives need to build and maintain relationships with healthcare professionals, including doctors, nurses and pharmacists, for whom we already cater. They need to demonstrate the benefits of their company's services and explain developments in pharmaceutical products and healthcare equipment."

“It’s a very sought after section of the industry and our recruitment clients, who do cover this area, are always asking us to represent them, so there’s obviously a gap in the market,” Vicky Scott continued.

Jobs4Medical.co.uk is free to candidates and is one of the few sites that does not authorise searching of its database, allowing the candidate to remain in control throughout the application process.
